Partner Spotlight

The Recreational Vehicle Dealer's Association (RVDA) of Alberta is a group of independent businesses that exists to promote the growth, development, and awareness of the RV Industry and the RV lifestyle in Alberta. There are a variety of employment opportunities in the RV Industry for youth. Approximately 5000 people work in this industry, and opportunities will vary depending on the size of the RV dealership. The RVDA is currently offering full-time, part-time, and seasonal employment opportunities. Within an RV dealership there are a number of entry level career choices such as: Lot and Clean up Personnel, Unit Cleaner, Detailer, Accessory Installer, Receptionist, and many more. The majority of applicants must be 18 years of age, however, there are seasonal opportunities available for applicants who are 16. The rate of pay will vary, depending on the position. To apply and to view current job opportunities, visit www.rvcareers.ca. Visit nextsteps.org for more information on the RVDA. To feature your organization in the Spotlight, contact Jessica Pauletig at 403-268-4767 or jessica.pauletig@calgary.ca.
